Unit-IV

- 1) Read the passage and answer the questions given below (5)
- Machines were made to be man's servant, yet he has grown so dependent on them that they are in a fair way to become his masters. Already most of men spent most of their lives looking after and waiting upon machines and the machines are very stern masters. They must be fed with coal and given petrol to drink and oil to wash with and they must be kept at right temperature. If they do not get their meals when they expect them, they grow sulky and refuse to work, and spread ruin and destruction all around them. So we have to wait upon them in a good temper. Already we find it difficult either to work or to play without machines, and a time may come when they may rule us all together just as we rule the animals.
- Q1) Why did we make machines?
Q2) Who in real sense is the master, man or machine, and why?
Q3) How can we keep machines in good temper?
Q4) Why do machines spread ruin?
Q5) Give a suitable title to the passage.
